Burning Motherfuckers - Burning Motherfuckers EP

The self-proclaimed “drum and bass” duo from Oslo, Norway should get a preemptive award for “most fitting name to music ratio” award somewhere. Bitchin’, burning noise punk riffs with a lovely knack for krautrock-like monotony which builds up the track to the insane, intense final. Think the missing link between Swell Maps and Lightning Bolt, with a bit more love directed toward the first band. Utterly stoned, distorted and spasmodic. You’ll love it, you fuckers, I know it.
